

PLANS ALL LAID TO FILL 'SOCKS'

Empty Stocking Fund to Deliver More Than 100 Christmas Baskets

TOYS ALSO ON LISTS

But They Are Sensible, Welch Explains; Fund Committee Now Four Years Old

A lot of folks will be made happy Christmas by those persons who contributed to the Empty Stocking Fund. During the afternoon of December 4, the day before Christmas, more than 100 baskets filled to overflowing with good things to eat and with sensible toys will be delivered to more than 100 families living in various parts of the city by the Tulsa County Humane society, under direction of County Humane Agent A. M. Welch.

Volunteers Met Friday.
At a meeting of the Empty Stocking fund committee, held at the chamber of commerce rooms Friday afternoon, details of the distribution were all decided. However, volunteers with automobiles must be depended upon to assist in distributing the baskets. Every person who will give this service is to meet at the new quarters of the city club, between Fourth and Fifth streets on Boulder avenue, at 1 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

Such volunteers will not only be assisting the committee, but they will be filled with good cheer as they distribute the baskets and witness the gladness and the surprise of those unfortunate families to whom the Christmas basket will be a veritable godsend and which will brighten their dreary homes on Christmas and for several days afterward.

This year the local lodge B. P. O. Elks will take an active part in the distribution of baskets. One hundred names have been furnished the Elks by Mr. Welch, and to each one of these persons will be delivered a basket by the Elks themselves who will fill them with similar articles to those sent out by the humane society.

Each basket to be delivered by the humane society, because of the success of the Empty Stocking Fund, will contain a small sack of flour, five pounds of sugar, five pounds of navy beans, four pounds of rice, three pounds of lard, two pounds of butter, one peck of potatoes, four cans of vegetables and fruits, two loaves of bread, one quart of cranberries, one bunch of celery, one beef roast, one sack of candy, a sack of nuts, a sack of apples, two cans of milk one package of cereal, and enough toys for each family.

Mr. Welch is now making purchases for the baskets and expects to have them all filled and ready for delivery so there may be no delay in starting distribution at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Committee Four Years Old.
The empty stocking committee with its present membership was organized about four years ago. It is composed of Humane Agent Welch; C. E. Buchner, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; Clarence B. Douglas, managing director of the chamber of commerce; N. R. Graham, and Mrs. R. P. McArthur, who is treasurer.

Prior to the appointment of this committee, Welch, with a few assistants delivered the baskets with a horse and buggy. Now it requires from 15 to 20 automobiles to cover the city annually.

"We have checked our cards with those of the Salvation Army and with the Ministerial Alliance to avoid any duplication," Welch said Friday.

On behalf of the committee he thanked The World heartily for its co-operation in bringing the Empty Stocking Fund to more than $1,500 this year. The amount sought was $1,500.

Manila Constabulary Disarmed as Result of Disastrous Riot

By The Associated Press.
MANILA, P. I., Dec. 17.—The entire constabulary garrison here has been disarmed and placed under arrest and complaints were being prepared today for the prosecution of 78 constabulary soldiers who admitted participation in the riot Wednesday, resulting in the death of four Americans and seven Filipinos.

Witnesses of the riot between the constabulary forces and the Filipino local police declare the shooting of Augustus Jacuman, an army field clerk, was shocking. Jacuman held up both hands indicating to the constabulary soldiers that he was not a policeman, but he was killed with two bullets through the head.

The riot was started by the constabulary forces seeking to wreak vengeance upon the police for mistreatment Sunday of the wife of a constabulary private.

A committee of six members to investigate was named by the legislature in session here.

College Dormitories Looted.
CHAPULTEPEC, N. C., Dec. 17.—Lungara swept through five dormitories at the University of South Carolina last night, taking from students' rooms more than 30 watches and several hundred dollars in cash. Several times students were awakened by an intruder, but when the stranger explained that he had blundered into the wrong room in the dark, they went back to sleep.

Reprieve for Slayers.
LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 17.—Developments in a last hour fight to save the lives of Albin B. Cole and Allen V. Grammer, convicted Howard county murderers, culminated today in the allowance of a writ of error by the state supreme court. While the court action does not directly concern Grammer, it has been the policy of the officials to reprieve one when the other's case was involved in court.

Each one of these men played a part in the life of little Nancy.—Dabney Todd, with his quaintly humorous philosophy,—poor, weak Joe, her father,—"Cash" Bailey, with his sage advice,—the Shaynes, father and son, who plotted against her, and Chet, the sturdy youngster with whom she found her ultimate happiness.

So true,—so vivid is the picture that is drawn that her adventures and misadventures will hold you engrossed, for the production seems to throb and pulsate with the very breath of life.
